Philadelphia Law Firm Lipschutz & Friedman Announces that they are Now Offering Free Consultations

Philadelphia, PA - July 16, 2015 -- The Philadelphia law firm of Lipschutz & Friedman has announced its intention to offer all new and existing clients with a complimentary consultation to discuss their cases and their rights. With this consultation, the law firm will be able to educate and inform clients without adding to the financial stress that a personal injury case can bring. Those interested in learning more about liability, malpractice, injury, death and motor vehicle accident cases can now talk with a lawyer for no cost, giving them the chance to understand their rights.

"Our clients are often facing intense financial and emotional stress because of their injuries," indicated Steven M.

Lipschutz, one of the firm's attorneys. "We find that often, people who need our services do not call for help because they fear the cost. By offering this consultation at no cost to our clients, we are able to talk through the details of their cases and help them determine if they have a case worth pursuing. There is no risk, and more people are able to get the necessary help."

The law firm of Lipschutz & Friedman specializes in personal injury cases, including medical malpractice and motor vehicle accidents. The firm focuses on helping ease the burden of medical bills and lost wages caused when someone is injured at the hand of someone else. The legal team has earned a reputation for compassionate care and aggressive representation for its clients.
